HELLO NEW GIRLS

NUMEROUS IMPROVEMENTS MADE THROUGHOUT SCHOOL

MR. CHAPPELEAR DIRECTS WORK DONE ON GROUNDS AND BUILDINGS

The entire campus has been overhauled and numerous improvements made under the able direction of Mr. George Chappelear during the past summer, the greater part of the work being done during the few weeks between summer and winter school when the buildings were vacant.

Old students returning, note first the improvements on the campus proper, the progress in grading the lawn and the completion of the walk between Alumnae and Jackson Halls being the most outstanding features. Further investigation discloses a concrete curb and a gutter along the road from Walter Reed to Maury.

Work has been begun on the new hockey field which is to be just across the road from the old one, and a golf course will be built this fall, according to a recent report from Mr. Chappelear.

Carter House, Cleveland Cottage, the janitors' house and the barns have been painted outside silver-gray with white trimmings.

The exterior woodwork on Maury, Jackson, Ashby, Spotswood, and Alumnae Halls is re-painted white, and the porch floors of Jackson and Ashby are painted gray.

Walter Reed Hall has been thoroughly cleaned and the floors oiled. The big gymnasium floor is shellaced and the basket ball lines retraced. Several teachers desks and 200 new class room chairs have been supplied.

Maury and Harrison have been cleaned and the floors waxed; a new steam table has been installed in the kitchen which is also re-painted, and the boilers and the heating plant have been over-hauled.

All the dormitories have been cleaned and disinfected, the walls repaired, and the floors waxed. The walls in Jackson, Ashby, Wellington, Shenandoah have been painted cream color, while those in Spotswood have been washed.

The showers in Jackson have been removed and eight bathtubs installed.

Miss Cleveland's rooms in Carter House have been repapered. A new bath has been provided and the interior wood-work painted throughout.

Cleveland Cottage has new maple floors upstairs and the office rooms have been re-papered. The reception in Alumnae Hall is now painted in two-tone effect.

The whole College is in tip-top condition. One observer remarked today, "If Mr. Chappelear had about two weeks more he would probably build a new school."

Every piece of work which is not as good as you can make it, in which you have palmed off imperfect, meagerly thought, niggardly in execution, upon mankind, every hasty or slovenly performance should rise up against you in the court of your own heart and condemn you for a thief.—R. L. Stevenson.

"Look, Toto, here is father's portrait! Do you think it looks like him very much?"

"Oh yes! He looks as if he were just going to box my ears!"

A Hearty Welcome to Everybody

Man Graduate Receives Diploma

Hunter Lee Jackson, of Port Republic, the first man to be graduated from the College, completed the two-year professional course the past summer. He was one of the thirty-seven who received diplomas August 26, ten of the thirty-seven being awarded bachelor of science degrees.

Dr. D. R. Anderson, of Randolph Macon's Woman's College, delivered the Commencement address. The program followed the traditional outline with the processional, recessional, and singing of the school and state song.

Vesper services on Sunday afternoon, August 21, in Walter Reed Hall opened the Commencement week. The Reverend Gipsy Smith, Jr. was the speaker. Tuesday afternoon the President's reception to the graduates was given at his home, "Hill Crest."

Among those graduating appear many names familiar to the old girls:

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE

Ruby Crawford, Petersburg; Elizabeth M. Grubb, Norfolk; Fannie R. Holsinger, Linville; Ellen Warren Hopkins, Harrisonburg; Maggie Lou Joyce, Critz; Marion P. Kelly, Hampton; Ruth F. Lewis, Danville; Mary I. Payne, Arlington Heights; Kathryn B. Roller, Harrisonburg; and Helen B. Yates, Harrisonburg.

TWO YEAR PROFESSIONAL

Eva A. Babcock, Chase City; Elma Hesley, Burke; Ruby J. Booze, Clifton Forge; Virginia A. Borum, Shadow; G. Hope Burgess, Capron; Annie D. Campbell, Madison Heights; Jane Leslie Cox, Alexandria; Inez K. Everette, Scotland Neck, N. C.; Ellen M. Gilkeson, Fisherville; Leola C. Grove, Waynesboro; Margaret Marie Gum, Leesburg; Hunter Lee Jackson, Port Republic.

Mary Julia Keezel, Elkton; Corinth Kidd, Victoria; Edith T. Maddox, Fabtr; Vallie V. May, Singers Glen; Mattie E. Meyerhoeffer, Port Republic; Virginia M. Puryear, Ashland; Norma S. Reynolds, Unionville; Katie Lee Rolston, Harrisonburg; Mary Louise Schlosser, Gordonsville; Pauline W. Shreve, Staunton; Mary Sue Stephenson, Suffolk; Mildred E. Tyler Toano; Margaret Crump Watts, Portsmouth; Elizabeth M. Whitley, Drewryville, and Alice Will, North River.

HANDBOOKS ARE VALUABLE

Every new girl in school has received a Student Government Handbook through the mail. Freshmen are asked to be particularly careful of their copies as they will need them in their training.

In case a copy is misplaced, the loser may obtain another from the Student Council for ten cents. The books are an expense and Student Government can afford only one copy to each girl.

Solomon in all his glory was not as convincing as Pat Patrick.

Welcome Folks

In behalf of the Executive Committee of the Student Association I wish to welcome to H. T. C. the girls who are returning after being away from Harrisonburg during the past year, and those who are returning for another successive year at the College.

And to the girls entering for the first time I wish to extend a special greeting from each old girl.

We hope that each one shall learn quickly to feel that H. T. C. is to be her new home for a while. We hope that you will find friends here with whom you will enjoy working. We are glad you came to this college and we want and need you in our various activities on the campus.

The old girls look forward to the new girls getting the true "Harrisonburg Spirit." Then will we all be raising the standards which each of us has a share in making.

Mary Ellen Fray.

Dr. Geiger To Speak To Student Body

Dr. J. R. Geiger of William and Mary College will address the student body Thursday evening, September 29, the time pending. His topic will be "Some Misconceptions of the Honor System."

He has been interested in the honor system and connected with its actual working for some years. He is in a position, therefore, to give a broad view of cases included in the system.

Dr. Geiger is to speak at the Convocation exercises to be held at the chapel hour, Friday, the 30th.

DR. WAYLAND WRITES OF TRIP ABROAD

Dr. John W. Wayland, professor of social science in the College, spent the greater part of last summer touring Europe. He is having his travel diary on Europe printed under the title, "Rambles in Europe" and expects the books to be ready for distribution about October 1. Dr. Wayland undertook this task at the suggestion of a number of his friends who have made known in advance their desire to purchase a copy of the book.

At the written request of a reporter about a week ago Dr. Wayland wrote a letter about his trip which is quoted here in entirety.

"Now I can understand why Miss Aiken spent so much time in Florence and why Miss Cleveland has been daffy (please don't let her see this!) over Gramere and the Shakespeare country ever since she was over there, and why Miss Harnsberger and Miss Turner and others have so many nice things to say about Paris.

Well, Florence is certainly an interesting and attractive old city,

College Attendance Largest This Year

College opens its 18th annual session today with the largest enrollment in the history of the school. The exact figures have not yet been obtained but the number of students is around the 800 mark. More than 1000 applications for admission have been received but the institution is not large enough to accommodate so many. Last year classroom space was improved by the building of Walter Reed Hall and the conversion of Sheldon Hall into a dormitory solved the lodging problem. But even this progress would not care for the persons who wished to be entered this year.

GOVERNOR'S COMMISSION INVESTIGATES SCHOOLS

Major Robert T. Barton, Jr., the chairman of the special educational investigation commission appointed by Governor Byrd, has made an important announcement:

"In order that the commission may study the educational system of Virginia to better advantage the body has divided itself into three separate committees as follows: a committee on higher education, exclusive of Teachers' Colleges which committee comprises Dr. Charles J. Smith, of Salem, chairman, Senator James S. Barron and W. M. Gravatt.

Committee on teachers' colleges—Dr. Weta Glass, Sweet Briar, chairman, Judge T. N. Haas, W. W. Bird. Committee on primary and secondary education—W. H. East, Churchville, chairman; J. C. Hassinger, R. Lindsay Gordon.

Every Virginia citizen is invited to communicate to the commission his opinion of the educational system of the state. The commission, according to Major Barton, wants its report to reflect the views of the people. Letters should be directed to "The Chairman, The Commission on Education, State Capitol, Richmond, Va."

Dr. M. V. O'Shea, of the University of Wisconsin, is heading the educational survey.

MR. JAMES JOHNSTON DIES EARLY PART OF THE SUMMER

BELOVED PROFESSOR AND WRITER OF NOTE SUC- CUMBS AFTER PRO- LONGED ILLNESS

Students return to College feeling strongly the absence of Mr. James Johnston, who died suddenly June 18th at his home, Edge Lawn. Mr. Johnston had been an instructor in the College since 1910 and his intelligence and brilliant personality effected all with whom he came in contact. He was a scientist and writer of note and his death came as a shock to his many friends.

Mr. Johnston sustained a fractured ankle on May 18, which preceeded an attack of pneumonia and pleurisy. He continued to improve until a few days before his death, when his condition became serious.

The funeral was conducted from his home by the Reverend Mr. Williams of the Episcopal Church assisted by Dr. Wilson of the Presbyterian Church. The Masonic lodge conducted the rites at Woodbine, where interment took place.

Mr. Johnston for a number of years was principal of the Harrisonburg High School which progressed under his guidance.

He meant as much to the College since he took up his work here as he did to the city school.

"Versatile" describes Mr. Johnston. His ability in teaching ranged through languages, foreign and English, mathematics, and science. He was interested in the current happenings in school, community, and the world. He was an active supporter of College activities, his particular interest lying in dramatics.

Mr. Johnston completed a little while before his illness "The Biography of Personality" which has been accepted for publication by the Century Company in New York. Such accomplishments as this together with the impression his character and personality left will keep living the memory of Mr. Johnston.

CHURCHES EXTEND CORDIAL INVITATIONS

Every girl who is a member of the Church is cordially invited by her denomination in Harrisonburg to attend Sunday School and church while she is here. Any girl who is not a member is urged to make a choice of a Sunday School which she will support during her stay in the College and each church welcomes her to its services. The ministers of the churches are printed below:

Baptist Rev. Geo. W. Blount
Church of the Brethren
Rev. N. D. Coal
Church of Christ
Rev. John B. Dickson
Episcopal Rev. Walter Williams
Hebrew Dr. J. E. Schwanenfeld
Methodist Dr. J. J. Rives
Presbyterian Dr. B. F. Wilson

ANNOUNCING A CONTEST

A Friendly Contest is to be put on in our midst. The project, it is hoped, is initiated by every girl in College, and the goal is won by the person who makes the most friends and acquaintances. The time expires in June and the contest will be resumed when school opens again. The major requirement is that the contestant in some way be connected with the H. T. C. campus; the following suggestions will prove helpful to aspirants:

Learn the names of the people with whom you come in contact.

And get in contact with as many as you can without neglecting your duties.

Speak to these persons when you see them, calling them by name when possible.

Try a smile with your greeting.

Refrain from expressing adverse criticism and let your favorable regard be known by your actions rather than your speaking.

After deciding to enter the contest practice each part vigorously at every opportunity, allowing no exception.

The winner of the contest will never be announced because there will be a tie between a large number of the contestants, but the reward is of such nature that every-one may have a share:

A successful contestant will develop a social poise that will be life-lasting, but her greatest reward will be the friends and acquaintances she gains.

IT'S EASY TO BE GOOD

There are of necessity certain regulations in connection with life in this College which are set up to be carefully honored and regarded, and any breach of such laws carries with it just punishment—even as the breaking of community laws brings its penalty. But the system of government is not so complicated that the individual can not readily understand and abide by it. In fact, with a few general principles in mind a girl can live as happy a life here and one as free from worry as she could ever find elsewhere.

Her first step is to make herself a part of the group, to so feel its undercurrent of honor and responsibility that she would not, for her own selfish enjoyment, wish to mar the whole by breaking away from its line of behavior. She cannot say to herself, "This thing will not hurt me. Why should I not do as I please?" That thing has been barred by wiser people than she and if she spoils a tradition she has weakened that which she is a part of and thereby weakened herself.

Ignorance of the law, to us, is no excuse. If a new girl interests herself in her work, asks questions and permission when she is not quite certain, she will soon find that the rules, which are not so many, will have become a part of life.

BULLETIN BOARD RULES

There are bulletin boards in Harrison, Maury and Walter Reed Halls, where faculty and class notices may be posted. In Harrison Hall the faculty bulletin board is to the left as one enters the door, while the student board is to the right. "For sale" and "Lost" or "Found" notices should be posted on dormitory boards only. Emergency notices of meetings are written on the black-board by the steps which lead to the dining hall.

All notices:

- Are to be written in ink.
- Are to be neat.
- Are to be signed and dated.
- Are to be removed from board within two days.

LIVING CLAY

I took a piece of plastic clay,
And idly fashioned it one day
And as my fingers pressed it, still
It moved and yielded to my will.
I came again when days were past—
The bit of clay was hard at last
The form I gave it still it bore
But I could change it nevermore.

I took a piece of living clay,
And gently formed it day by day,
And moulded, with my power and art,
A young child's soft and yielding heart.
I came again, when years were gone
It was a man I looked upon,
He still that early impress bore

And I could change it nevermore.

This poem was sent in by a girl who wrote, "This reminds me of teaching." How true she is in her conceptions, and how our strength shall grow from day to day and year to year, as teachers like her pass through our gates.

A WELCOME FROM THE Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. wishes to extend a cordial welcome to every new girl and old girl. Particularly does the Cabinet wish to be of service to the new-comers; each member wishes to impress the fact that the Young Women's Christian Association belongs to every student on the campus. The Y. W. wants everyone to take an active part in its work.

The Y. W. C. A. serves as a bond between the girls and it each year strives to strengthen the ties of sisterhood between the students at Harrisonburg Teachers College. Two religious services are conducted each week, one Thursday evening after dinner and the other Sunday afternoon after the midday meal. Attractive and helpful programs, in which different students take part, are presented.

The Y. W. endeavors to create a pleasant social life through teas, parties, and entertainments which it fosters from time to time. There is nothing stilted or priggish about Y. W. activities. It is an organization for a real, live, American girl.

OUR DEAN OF WOMEN

Mrs. Bernice Reaney Varner is the Dean of Women and it is to her that old girls and new girls alike go with any problems. Mrs. Varner confided to a reporter that she wished often that she did not have any title, because frequently the very name of "Dean of Women" frightens new girls, and she wants them to feel that she is just as human as she really is. Any old girl will testify to the fact that Mrs. Varner is understanding, and she would go further and advise that a lonesome or homesick girl talk first to Mrs. Varner then write home.

The office of the Dean of Women is the first room to the left on the lower floor of Alumnae Hall. Until her schedule is arranged a note as to the time of office hours will be found pinned on the curtain to the office door. Permission for week-end trips must be obtained as early as Thursday and it is an excellent plan never to wait until the last minute before consulting Mrs. Varner about any plan.

Students are requested to be in the dining room before the second signal; the doors are closed when it sounds. As soon as the second bell has rung everyone remains quiet for the blessing, and no one sits down until the Dean of Women, or some-one acting in her place, makes the movement.

Every student is required to attend chapel and attendance is checked. Promptness and an attitude of quietness and reverence make the exercises more worthwhile.

The time between classes is of sufficient length to make tardiness unnecessary.

During study hour visiting in between dormitories is not allowed. Students may go to the library or reading room, but the period is one for work and not play. The half hour between ten and ten-thirty is for recreation, but the lights go off promptly at ten-thirty and absolute quiet is expected.

CAMPUS

Tom Says:

"Everything's so neat I feel like an old maid's pet. 'Twon't last."

One bright girl wants to know if a person who throws a banana peel on the sidewalk is a "banarachist?" We refer her to the victim.

We thought the Jew was talking about the land of cow-boys and bronchos when he said something about the "Vild and Vooly Vest", but when he took off his coat and revealed a bright checked waist-coat we weren't so sure.

Virginia Harvey comes back to school and spoils all our pretty congratulations. She isn't married, after all.

But that's all right. She will be. One girl heard that most of our graduates got married (finally) and that's the reason she selected this school.

We're glad she came and we hope her lots of success after she leaves here. But we don't have even a faculty member who is single, and all the town boys have gone off to teachers' colleges.

Mr. Logan saw so many shows while he was in New York that he has decided to teach burlesque rather than Shakespeare.

This is the best school on earth. We think so, and as the saying goes, "That isn't conceit. It's family pride."

"My stars, Lorraine! Do you know how Helen spells 'cat'?"
"Well, how under the sun?"
"C-a-t."

It's rather hard to believe that a man jumped from the top of the Washington Monument and half-way down decided to jump back.

There's really no use in our getting home-sick. Christmas will soon be here and we can go home and eat all the potatoes we want.

Now is the time for all the girls who wanted a lovely coat of tan to purchase a bottle of bleach.

Mr. Chappellear: If the gas in that tank should expand, what steps should be taken?
Dots: Long ones.

Flo: This stuff makes my eyes smart.
Mitch: Then you'd better put some on your head.

If Margaret got her hair cut
Then Bob would get sore
And Margaret wouldn't like her
Bob any more.

DETAILS GIVEN ABOUT
POPULAR POST-OFFICE

One of the most important and popular places on the Campus is the post-office located to the left of Harrison Hall lobby and easily identified by the mailboxes.

Mrs. Gladys Diggs has charge of the post-office and she is an efficient and cheerful person for a position which brings her in contact with every-one in school. Several girls in the College have as their scholarship work assisting in the post office.

Mail arrives—8:15 a. m.
10:00 a. m.
4:15 p. m.
Mail goes out 9:30 a. m.
3:00 p. m.

There is no handling of mail on Sunday with the exception of special deliveries which are put up at five o'clock in the afternoon.

Uninsured packages come to the College station, but insured mail is sent to the sub-station which is located in the building between Wellington and Shenandoah. The presence of a package in the post-office is made known to the owner by a slip in her box and she may with this evidence secure her mail at the window. The sub-station also uses the slip method. No student is permitted to go to the sub-station after six o'clock.

Only those girls who are assistants in the post-office are allowed in the room. The window is the only means of communication between those wishing to be served and those working in the post-office.

Stamps, plain, and a large variety of engraved stationery can be bought in the post-office which also serves as a sales-room where all books and general supplies needed may be bought. Various sizes of loose-leaf notebooks, tablets of all sizes, pencils, erasers, ink, fountain pens, clips, rulers, notebook reinforcements, type-writing paper, thumb tacks, and paste can be obtained. There are also laundry bags, pennants, shoe bags, memory books, indelible ink sets, soap and gold seals for the back of envelopes.

The window is opened at eight o'clock and is only closed before six at those intervals when the mail is being put up.

LIBRARY REGULATIONS

Miss Virginia Harnsberger is the librarian and she has several assistants who are College girls doing this work for scholarships. Regulations governing the library are here given:

The library will be open the following hours:

7:55 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. (except during Assembly)
1:25 p. m. to 5:00 p. m.
7:00 p. m. to 9:00 p. m. (except Saturday)

All books taken from the library must be charged at the librarian's desk.

Students may borrow books for one week with the privilege of renewal for one week. Special arrangements will be made for student teachers for a longer time.

Books reserved by instructors for "special reference" may be obtained from the librarian for use in the library, and must be returned to her desk. They may be taken out for over-night use at 9 p. m., but must be returned by 8 o'clock next morning. They may also be taken out during the noon hour, and from 5 to 7.

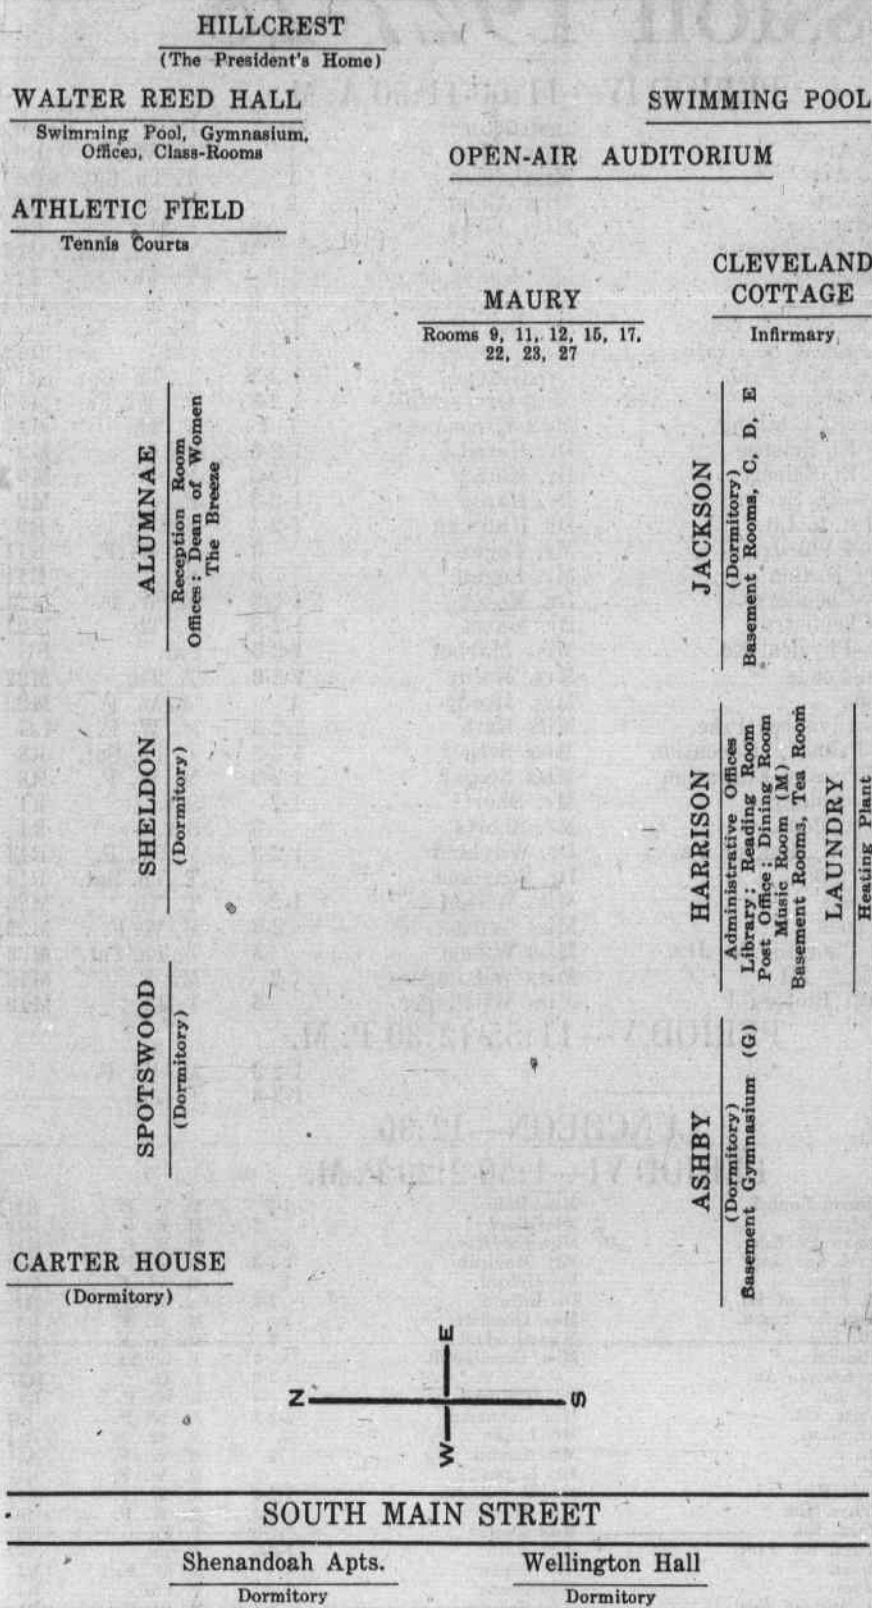

When books are not returned on time, a fine is charged—five cents a day for books from the stacks, five cents a period for special reference books.

Books taken from the stacks, except encyclopedias, are to be left on the tables. Encyclopedias should be returned to their proper places.

The reading-room is open all the time, for the use of magazines and newspapers.

CAMPUS MAP

AN "IF" FOR GIRLS

If you can dress to make yourself attractive
Yet not make puffs and curls your chief delight;
If you can swim and row, be strong and active,
But of the gentler graces lose not sight.
If you can dance without a craze for dancing
Play without giving too strong a hold,
Enjoy the love of friendship without romancing,
Care for the weak, and friendless and the old,
If you can master English, Spanish and Latin
And not acquire, as well, a priggish mien;
If you can feel the touch of silk and satin
Without despising calico and jean;
If you can ply a saw and hammer
Can do a man's work when the need occurs,
Can sing when asked without excuse to stammer,
Can rise above unfriendly snubs and slurs;
If you can make good bread as well as fudge;
Can sew with skill, and have an eye for dust;
If you can be a friend and hold no grudges,
A girl whom all will love because they must;
If sometime you should meet and love another
And make a home with faith and peace enshrined,
And you its soul a loyal wife and mother
You'll work out pretty nearly to my mind
The plan that's been developed through the ages,
And win the best that life can have in store;
You'll be, my girl, a model, for the ages,
A woman whom the world will bow before.

THE PRIVATE WHO'S WHO OF THE COLLEGE

ENOUGH OF THEIR LIVES TO LET THE READER KNOW THEM

For the enlightenment of new girls and to refresh the memories of the old timers the Breeze is printing herein a type of "Who's Who." Student Association
Mary Ellen Fray, the president, is one of the most capable and well-known girls on the campus with the reputation of knowing how to understand people. She is a senior in the College and lives at Madison, Va.
Mary McNeil, from Fishersville, is the vice-president and a good one. Her special job is superintending the table make-ups and checking meal attendance. She is a senior and a mighty bright one in everybody's opinion.
Florence Reese is the little secretary-treasurer, but she is big enough to be the very best. Florence is a junior and a short time ago she was staying at home—Atlee.
Y. W. C. A.
The leader of the Young Women's Christian Association on the Campus is Marion Wagner who has that quiet influence over girls which is so necessary for a person in her position. Her home is in Appotomattox but her school home is in Alumnae Hall. Marion is a senior.
Margaret Knott from Portsmouth is vice-president of the Association and she is one of the jolliest and most capable girls in the senior class.
The secretary is Virginia Harvey from Roanoke. She is one of the most talented girls in school and the senior class is fortunate in having her for a member.
Mary Boone is one of the "Murphys" from Machadoc and adds a junior to the executives. She is a fine treasurer.
Adelia Krieger is the undergraduate representative whose place it is to represent the College at conferences. She, too, is a senior, coming here from Portsmouth.

Athletic Association
The Athletic Association is another organization in which every girl in College has a large interest. Dorothy Gibson from the standpoint of general as well as athletic ability, is well fitted to be the president. Elizabeth Miller, vice-president, is equally as interested in the Association. Mary Botts, her sister, is going out to be a good business manager as well as a basket-ball player.

Pi Kappa Omega
Having in her character and personality the three requirements which Harrisonburg's only honor society demands—scholarship, leadership, and character—Lorraine Gentis is a splendid president of Pi Kappa Omega.

Aeolian Music Club
Martha Derrick is a great music lover and is the very person to be the president of an honor music organization. She is also the leader of the Choral Club which is a music unit for everyone who wishes to participate. Martha, a senior in the College, lives in Pulaski.

The Blue Stone Orchestra
Young but thriving is the Orchestra. Maggie Roller is the able president. Maggie lives in Staunton. She is a valuable addition to the senior class.

The Schoolma'am
The general opinion in these parts is that there couldn't be a much better year-book than the "Schoolma'am," and that a better editor than Helen Goodson, from Norfolk, could hardly exist. Helen can do most anything she puts her hand or mind to, but getting along with people and writing are her outstanding characteristics. With her work and originality and with the experienced business managing of Lucy Gilliam, from Petersburg the "Schoolma'am" is well started. Helen is a senior and Lucy is a junior.

Every girl has to be a member of the Alpha before she is eligible for membership in any other literary society on the campus. Lucy Davis the present president, has for three years shown the Campus just how varied and numerous her services are; Lucy is another Norfolk girl.
Lanier Literary Society
Bernice Wilkins is another one of the seniors who has ability. She is president of the Lanier Literary Society. Bernice lives in Portsmouth, but her friends say she would be happy and smiling if she were suddenly swept off to Kalamazoo.

Lee Literary Society
Not only the Athletic Association comes under the leadership of Dorothy Gibson. She is president of the Lees.
Page Literary Society
Helen Lineweaver, as a first year town girl, made herself indispensable on the Campus last year and as president of the Pages she ought to be a gem.

The High School Club
For the second year Mayme Turner, a diligent senior, is going to make a go of the High School Club.
Stratford Dramatic Club
One must have ability to be a member of the Stratford Dramatic Club, and to be president—Anne Bulloch, in her freshman year just past, displayed marked ability in her chosen work. She is president of the Stratfords.

Cotillion Club
Bernice Wilkins danced her way into the Cotillion Club and for the second year she is president of that organization.

Frances Sale Club
Capable in home-economics and other lines, Charlotte Turner is president of the organization that draws its members from the home-economics department. Charlotte is a senior.
Le Cercle Francais
Mary Crane made her marks last year in other things besides French; Le Cercle should grow under her leadership.

The Euclid Club
The Euclid Club has mathematics for its interest. Elsie Davis, a junior from Newport News, is the president.

The Art Club

Last year for the first time an Art Club was formed on the campus and it accomplished much through its posters and exhibits. Frances Hughes a Harrisonburg girl, is the president.

BLUE RIDGE

There are mountains lifted high,
Crimson sunsets paint the sky;
Blue of heav'n and far off mountains,
Crystal rills from nature's fountains
Birds that trill the livelong day
Flowers that say, "Come out and play."

There no jealousy or hate,
Can e'er slip inside the gate;
There the guiding star is love,
Fellowship with God above;
There each happy girl and boy
Learns that service is true joy.

Blue Ridge, with your mountains high,
And your glorious sunset sky.
With your rills and gay bird's song,
Loving life the whole day long,
Help me keep my eyes above.
Serving God and man with love.
Virginia Harvey

SONGS WE SHOULD KNOW

If your team is full of pep
That's H. T. C.
If they're winning every step
That's H. T. C.
If they shoot with a confident look
If they shine like the stars on the brook
With lots of vim they surely will win.
That's our H. T. C.

Watch the girls across the court,
show them that we are here.
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer—
Rah, rah, rah,
His them hard and see how they fall,
Never let the others get the ball.
Hail, hail, the gang's all here
And we're rooting for H. T. C.

3.
Come play the game for all you're worth
Come play it fast and well
Keep alive H. T. C. spirit
With song and shout and yell.
Ever nearing victory
With this single aim
For the glory of old Harrisonburg
Is to always play the game.

4.
Who's that coming down the field fast as can be.
Who's got pep and steam a sight?
Just watch and see
Who's going to win, girls
Who's brave and bold
Who's going to win girls
Purple and gold

5.
With a step that's steady and strong
For old Harrisonburg march along
True to the colors we bear
The Purple and Gold so fair
In bond of true fellowship
That the days and years cannot sever
United in friendship we stand
For school, for friends, for Alma Mater forever.

Al—"Shut the door, it's cold outside."
Sal—"It won't be any warmer out if I shut it."

ANATOMY

Teacher—"We eat the flesh of animals. What do we do with the bones?"
Jean (aged 7)—"We put them on the edge of the plate."

Each student is expected to return to the rack all magazines and newspapers that she uses.
Magazines may not be taken from the reading-room, except by special permission.
Information regarding the location of books, magazines, etc., will be gladly furnished by the librarian and student assistants.

specially on the inside. I mean, inside the houses. Outside, in the streets, it seems about the dingiest and most lonesome place I've ever seen. Of course, if one sees the statue of Garibaldi, or knows that he's walking on the quay of Amerigo Vespucci, or finds out that this is the very bridge where Dante saw Beatrice, or gets a good view of the Ponte Vecchio at the right hour of the morning, he may be happy and feel romantic. But when he gets inside! The wonderful paintings in the Uffizi Gallery and in the Pitti Palace are certain to make him wish to stay at Florence a long time, just as Miss Aiken did.

Tour 48, of which I was one, had a good time at Florence in spite of the hot weather and in spite of the fact that the Arno River was nearly dry. I am certain that George Eliot must have been there in the rainy season, or she never could have imagined Tito Melema swimming in the Arno!

We saw Romola's house, too. At least the guide said it was her house. Also the spot where the great Savonarola was burned to death. So it used to go! Savonarola at Florence, John Huss at Constance, Servetus at Geneva, Joan of Arc at Rouen, Latimer and Ridley at Oxford. Those were some of the men and women that gave Europe a history and gave reality to liberty. It is the past, no less than the present; the dead, even more than the living, that make a trip to Europe worth while.

I can well imagine how Miss Cleveland must have been thrilled at Warwick Castle, especially when she remembered that one of her ancestors was a member of the old garrison there, and used to pour hot water or hot tar, or whatever it was, down from his perch near the portcullis. I'm sure he helped to make it hot for the besiegers in more ways than one. And then if she saw that bank of wild thyme in bloom in the old orchard just back of the Hathaway house, early in the morning, with the dew still sparkling on it, as I did, I know she didn't blame Anne Hathaway a bit for murmuring "Yes," with downcast eyes, of course, when Will said—well, whatever he said.

And I saw too that old wooden bench in the Hathaway house on which Shakespeare sat (probably) when he came courting. I don't know where Anne sat. I don't see why she couldn't have sat on the bench, too; for goodness knows it's big enough for two or three people.

But the thing I believe interested Miss Cleveland most was Dove Cottage, jammed up against the steep green bank, hard by the road at Grasmere; for that was the home of William Wordsworth and Dorothy when the former was writing some of his best poetry. I don't blame him for writing poetry in such a place, even if he was poor and had to cut wood and pull weeds in the garden between inspirations.

I thought I was going to say something more nice about Paris, but my sheet of paper is about used up. It is a fine old town—reminds me a good deal of Washington, D. C., in lay-out of streets, etc.

The thing I regret in connection with my European trip is that I did not see any of my colleagues of the college faculty all the time I was over there. I knew that a number of them were in Europe, and I was hoping to meet them, but not one did I see.

Yours very truly,
John W. Wayland.

P. S. Please don't tell anybody how seasick I was.

Officer—"Madam, I regret to have to arrest you, but you've been going 40 miles an hour."

Lady Driver—"Impossible! I have not even been out an hour."
